

Spring sing along with Musical Minis

Daffodil Song - sung to tune of Sing-A-Song of Sixpence

Yellow, yellow daffodil,
Dancing in the sun.
Oh yellow, yellow daffodil,
You tell me spring has come.
I can hear a blue bird sing,
And hear a robin call.
But yellow, yellow daffodil,
I love you most of all.

Five Little Flowers - sung to the tune of Incey Wincey Spider

Five little flowers standing in the sun (hold up five fingers)
See their heads nodding, bowing one by one? (bend fingers several times)
Down, down, down comes the gentle rain (wiggle fingers and lower arms)
And the five little flowers lift their heads up again! (hold up five fingers)

The Days of Spring - sung to the tune of The Farmer in the Dell

The days of Spring are here,
The days of Spring are here,
Flowers and bees, and birds in trees.
The days of Spring are here.

Spring Activity

Spring is a great opportunity to show your child how things grow. Why not add a little bit of fun to this? Here is just one idea!

How to make a Grass Potato Head

Take 1 large potato - a baking potato would be best and an old pair of tights (clear or tan or skin coloured). Cut off one leg so it is about 20cm in length.

Sprinkle some grass seeds (fast growing if you have it) into the toe of the tights.

Slice the top off the potato and place a thin layer of cotton wool onto the potato and dampen. Then place the potato top first into the tights so the cotton wool makes contact with the seeds.

Tie the tights at the side and cut off the surplus.

Using a marker pen draw a face onto the front of the potato

Place on a saucer and water from the top

Watch the grass grow

Here is a little song to sing whilst making your potato head.

I'm A Little Watering Can - sung to the tune of I'm A Little Teapot

I'm a little watering can

Tall and thin.

To fill me up,

Just pour the water in.

Then you tip me over

And the water sprinkles out.

"Thanks for the drink,"

The flowers all shout!

We would love to see both your potato head and the picture below coloured in. Email us your photos to enquiries@musicalminis.co.uk and we will place them on our web site.

Have lots of fun!

Make this Spring picture as colourful as you can.
